4. [] [] OSI, called to say that in accordance with a request from the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, the Atomic Energy Commission was formally requesting the Agency to review the transcript of Bradbury, Foster and Teller before the Subcommittee for any items which, from an Agency standpoint, should be deleted for security reasons. We can expect a letter on this within the next few days. [] said the work has already been done on this.

5. [] Called Representative Michael Feighan's office several times and went by his office in the afternoon in an attempt to get an indication as to when he would be available to meet with the Director (as Feighan had requested) to discuss the [] case. We were advised that Feighan would be in touch with us "as soon as possible."

6. [] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called with regard to the [] case. He said he would like to know whether we wished to handle [] appearance before the Subcommittee on 23 August as we had done in previous similar cases. He said if we did not, the Subcommittee would take care of it. I told him that we would be in touch with him further on this. Sourwine also said he had some material (prior Subcommittee hearings) which he would like to get to [] and asked if we wished to see that they got to him. This material was picked up this afternoon.

7. [] [] CDC, called to advise that [] would arrive in the U.S. tomorrow. He said that [] with DIA was effective as of 21 August, although he would be in [] for a short period of time immediately after his arrival. I again expressed concern about this case in view of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee's action in the [] case. [] said he had not received an answer from DIA regarding the possibility of [] appearance before the Subcommittee. I asked him again if he would get a position from DIA as to whether they had any objection to our advising the Subcommittee of [] status with them. [] said he would endeavor to get an answer to this question.

25X1 9. [redacted] Talked with Miss Pietrow in the office
25X1 of Senator Kenneth B. Keating in connection with a list of items and reports 25X1 she had furnished on 15 August. I responded to each of these items based on [redacted] draft of 17 August supplemented by an oral briefing. Miss Pietrow seemed satisfied on all of these items and said the Senator was most appreciative of our continued assistance to him.

25X1 10. [redacted] Talked with Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal 25X1A Security Subcommittee staff, indicating that we hoped to be in a position to sit down with him tomorrow and go over the case in some detail at which time necessary arrangements can be discussed and agreed upon. Sourwine did indicate in the course of the conversation that they have questioned [redacted] and have tested the authenticity of his information and are very much impressed with him.

25X1 11. [redacted] Talked with General Roderick, Office of Secretary of Defense - Legislative Affairs, to ascertain if he had seen any flash reports on Teller's testimony today centering around a discussion that the U. S. may not be ahead of the Soviets in the ICBM field. I indicated that my report was that Senators Kuchel and Bennett were playing the devil's advocate on this and Teller indicated that, of course, intelligence had been wrong before. (The Director had advised me that since he knew Kuchel
